

Introducing...the HIL Project website!

www.HILwmu.org (not case sensitive)

Welcome to the new HIL Project website! This is your “hub” for finding out about Project news, events, and resources. Described below is a simple outline of the Phase I features and how you can access the resources you need for your role. Please visit often, as new content is continually under development. Plus...project participants are invited to submit news, events, and other shareable content in a special area reserved just for them!

Feedback welcome!

We’re interested in your ideas to improve the site now and in future phases. Submit ideas, requests, and feedback through this link: <https://goo.gl/forms/qxbx9OsA2bo7b1T63>

Website features:

Home page—introduces the HIL Project partners, leaders, mission, and vision; links to one featured partner (rotates at least monthly); links to at least one feature story; home to the Leading now, Reading WOW! Widget that is the vehicle for current events, Project news, and announcements about upcoming events

Early Literacy Work—introduces the Literacy Essentials; links to key documents of the General Education Leadership Network (GELN) Early Literacy Task Force and to the GELN website

Leadership Work—introduces the WMU team and their past leadership development work; introduces the Reading Now Network; displays interactive map of participating schools; links to key resources by the RNN and to the RNN website

School Capacity Work—describes the Project’s school renewal model; page and resources still under development

Work with Schools—describes the process for how facilitators work with schools; includes news about recent developments or activities; page and resources still under development.

Team Resources—this is your “quick link” to the resources and tools you access most in your HIL Project role. Use the drop-down menus to navigate to resource pages dedicated to separate role groups: Partner Team, Coordinators, Facilitators, School Leaders

PASSWORDS NO LONGER REQUIRED!

Sidebars—throughout the site, customized sidebars designed to make navigation more intuitive and connect you to frequently asked-for pages and links.

Leading Now. Reading WOW!

This section of the HILWUMU home page is designed especially for project participants!

It's your forum for:

- Sharing good news:
 - Student/staff anecdote
 - Best practice tip
 - Helpful research
 - School success story
- Announcing events
- Alerting Project leaders about news and events
- Requesting Project communications services at an event (photographer, videographer, interviewer, etc.)

One easy-access website allows you to share text, photos, videos, links, dates (if applicable) and more! Share recent news or announce upcoming events. There's no need to stress over writing your content—program communications staff will polish and test all submissions before they go “live.”

It's easy to submit content to Leading now. Reading WOW!

Two short videos show you how.
